GLENDALÉ CITY COUNCIL MEMBERS APPOINTED TO INTERNAL AND REGIONAL COMMITTEES

Glendale, Ariz. — Two Glendale Councilmembers have recently been appointed to different working committees.

Vice Mayor Yvonne Knaack has been reappointed to the city of Glendale's Risk Management/Worker's Compensation Trust Fund Board. The board advises the city council on the administration and status of the city's Risk Management and Workers' Compensation trust funds. Knaack, who represents the Barrel District, has been on the city council since 2006.

Councilmember Gary Sherwood, who represents the Sahuaro District, has been appointed to serve two positions with Valley Metro. Valley Metro is the regional public transportation organization providing public transit and rideshare services in the greater Phoenix area. The agency receives policy direction from elected officials representing 15 member cities and the county.

Sherwood was appointed Treasurer of the Valley Metro Regional Public Transportation Authority (RPTA) Board, which guides the agency by providing transportation leadership to best serve the region and their communities. He was also appointed to the Valley Metro's Budget and Finance Subcommittee. Sherwood, has served on the city council since 2013.
